Title of the Practice – I : TED TALK

Objectives of the Practice:

Ideas change attitude lives and the world. Through TED TALKS sharing of ideas from people of every discipline and culture takes place. These talks are short and powerful of less than 18 minutes. These cover almost all topics from science to business to global issues. The speakers in these talks share their knowledge without any cost and are the world's most inspired thinkers. TED TALKS makes easy access to great ideas. Listening to the ideas can lead to conversation. TED TALKS provide a platform to learn about the ideas of thinkers, visionaries and teachers to get a better understanding and the complex issues faced by the world. TED TALKS help the listener to think positively, constructively and learn of new methods to resolve problems encountered in life and in the world.

- TED TALKS are organized as per time table prepared at the beginning of the academic year
- TED TALKS is a platform for coming together of faculties and students of different departments to listen to great ideas.
- TED TALKS provide an opportunity of sharing of ideas as well as participate in conversation.
- TED TALKS make it possible to listen and view speakers across the global in their chosen field of expertise.

Practices:

- The students learn to look at the issues from a different perspective.
- TED TALKS engage students with an idea and a problem and make way for critical and divergent thinking.
- TED TALKS help teachers to bring ideas into conversation and debate
- TED TALKS have the advantage of sharing of ideas on variety of topics from Art, Engineering, Technology, Science, Humanities etc., and these talks help to generate discussion around these topics.
- TED TALKS in the class room helps the students to understand the topics, think critically and discuss with their peers and faculty on different topics.
- TED TALKS are an extension material to the students in the class as these include a broader range of culture and academic content.

Evidence of success:

The student gets an opportunity to see and listen to the ideas and passions of world class guest speakers. They participate in the discussion that follows the screening of TED TALKS. It gives an opportunity to them to share and express their views and instills self confidence. The students interact with the teachers and the others in the class rooms on a wide variety of topics. They learn skills. These talks the students to gain and understanding of social factors. It helps the students to gain language skills.

Problems encountered and resources required:

- Time constraint is one of the main factors. As such different departments are provided one hour to screen TED TALKS on a specific day.
- Selecting of TED TALK is another problem. The teachers have to select from a wide galaxy of speakers and help the students relate to it culturally.
- TED TALKS need the support of IT infrastructure and the coming together of the faculties as a team to screen TED TALK in the class room.
- Preparing a time schedule and involve all the departments of all the programs for the screening of the TED TALKS.
